

SLate
RESTAURANT BAR

Located in the heart of the Melbourne CBD, just off Goldsbrough Lane, Slate is one of the city's select few all-weather rooftop venues. Slate's versatile, two-level space can cater for all standing and sitting events whether it be a work function, 21st birthday party, wedding reception, Christmas party or an intimate gathering.

Regardless of the season or the reason for your function, you have various options to create the most ideal ambience. We are fortunate enough to have flexibility with our space where you can choose from either upstairs or downstairs. Alternatively if you prefer to host your function outdoors, our balconies are fully covered and heated.

Our resident Head Chef, David Maclean (ex-Stokehouse) takes immense pride in delivering function food that not only satisfies the appetite but will leave you wanting to savour it long after the function has finished. Our canape menu includes both hot and cold choices with a definitive flare for originality, and our set menu encompasses everything that our a-la-carte menu does and more.

Public Transport

Slate is positioned within a short walk from various public transport stops making it an easy destination from all over the city. Southern Cross station is a quick five-minute walk away, and we're close to trams on Bourke St and Lonsdale Street. Taxi ranks are located just outside our venue.

Parking

On street parking is available in the immediate area, with varying parking restrictions. There are also nearby secure car parks.
